Comments from Big Sir Will Myers
Our June meeting will be held on the SECOND
Tuesday, June 10th

We had approximately 100 people attend our Mother's Day luncheon last month, and all comments were positive about the food, service and entertainment put on by the Antioch Choral group. We had a schedule conflict with the ladies 18-Holers golfing tournament which drew a number of our members (and Officers) from attending this special event. In spite of this conflict (which we must try to avoid next year), I find it difficult to understand why we had less than 30% of our membership willing to treat their significant other to this meaningful occasion.

An event coming up on Thursday, July 17th, is the annual Al DiGiusto small boat luncheon cruise. A sign-up sheet will be available in the lobby at our June luncheon for boat owners and riders, so look for it and sign up to participate in this enjoyable event. See further details in this Newsletter.

I will not be here for the June luncheon, but will be attending my 50th college reunion at Rensselaer (RPI) in upstate New York. The conduct of the meeting will be under the able hands of Little Sir, Eric Jensen.

The menu for our June luncheon will be Beef Stroganoff, Pasta & Vegetables.
